

Talk To Those Who Keep Informed About The Issues That Shape Virginia!

Target the "Movers and Shakers!" An ad in Virginia Capitol Connections Quarterly Magazine (QM) will reach hundreds of legislators, government officials, libraries, and citizens across the state! Your ad will be seen over and over as this quarterly magazine is stocked and re-stocked in racks and on coffee tables from Main Street to the Capitol. QM is where government, political, business, labor and community leaders across the state get their public affairs news about Virginia before it develops. We provide statewide perspectives on local problems; local perspectives on statewide problems, including how and why policy is made, who effects it, who is affected by it, and what it all means to you.

Virginia Capitol Connections Quarterly Magazine is a non-partisan magazine, published for Virginians for Integrity in Government, and features stories by elected and appointed government officials and other political observers. It is circulated to libraries, offices, and homes throughout the commonwealth.
